WHAT IF is a training course that gathers 36 participants, 5 experts and 1 translator from 17 EU countries. The project is linked with the large interest of organizations for a better quality in youth projects and with the fight for financing in Erasmus + program that brings together with new regulations, also new risks unconsidered by managers, youth workers, associations and youngsters. The aim is to enforce the risk management capacity in order to increase quality of youth projects.

Objectives of the project are:

- identify and analyze the risks that can occur in youth projects, the factors and impact on project's quality;
- providing tools specific for non-formal education for risk management, for risk evaluation, avoiding and reducing;
- development new competences for risk management and dealing with conflicts;
- exchange of practices and increase cooperation between youth structures by developing quality projects.

There will be 4 thematic session based on preparatory phase research, a session with 4 workshops to create and develop ideas for projects and a main session with 4 large workshops for to analyze the risk that can occur during each phase of the project and to edit a risk assessment for each situation.

The work methodologies are based on non-formal education and will consist in games, presentations, debates, role plays, simulations, world coffee, etc.
