ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE is a training course that gathers 4 experts and 29 youth workers from 29 organizations from 28 programme- and neighborhood countries.

The project takes place in a moment where Europe ethnic minorities are marginalized and discriminated leading to a limited access of their citizens to education, work and social services. The cases expand every year among youngsters with social negative aspects that lead to hate and intolerance. This project wish to be a follow up of our previous one with special results in preparing peace educators.

The aim of the training is to develop youth workers competences and to provide them new tools for a better social inclusion of ethnic minorities and for to combat intercultural discrimination.

The creation of a common reflection space on awareness of importance of cultural diversity, on the discrimination, on the identification of Europe minorities and their problems, providing work tools for to limit intolerance and keeping social peace. The project promotes also the development of specific competences for the promotion of mutual respect, tolerance and social equity, through forum theater and video creation as non-formal education tools for helping to solve problems of minorities discriminated, expanding cooperation between youngsters from EU and neighborhood countries promoting common projects founded on democratic values.

Main activities will be preparation, introduction, getting to know each other, presentation of organizations and participants, introduction of Erasmus + programme and youthpass certificate, thematic workshops, outdoor activities, intercultural evenings, cultural visits. The main workshops will be 2 sections: forum theater and video creation. Evaluation activities will be daily, midterm and final and will be in national groups, reflection groups and in plenary. During the project, there will be activities of monitoring, management and visibility. Methodology is based on non-formal education consisting in games, presentations, debates, role plays, simulations, world coffee, forum theater and video.

Expected final results are 2 theater pieces based on cases identified in preparatory phase and 2-4 videos to promote social integration of ethnic minorities.
