The project "European Contact Making Seminar" was prepared by the European Center for Youth Initiatives in collaboration with 13 partner organizations, whose very detailed selection as one of the basic principles was the existence of common needs, among which are:

- 1) Development of the Youth sector and the quality of work with young people both in selected countries and the EU.
- 2) Establishing contacts with non-governmental sector organizations from other EU countries to increase existing options for action and the exchange of good practices and their experience.
- 3) Creation of partnerships, whose members will stay in touch and would work together to create new initiatives, sharing knowledge and ideas, using technologies, such as planned virtual common working space in the form of internet platform.
- 4) Personal development of youth workers from the scope of its existing knowledge of Erasmus + Program and its opportunities, as well as creation of the opportunity to gain knowledge and experience for youth workers who are relatively at the beginning of their youth work.

Objectives

1. Development of international cooperation among NGO sector establishing effective international partnerships.
2. The exchange of good practices in youth work sector, as well as about establishing international partnerships, project management, use of instruments of non-formal education and ways of improving quality of youth work.
3. Creation of space for the development of the youth sector initiatives, including future local initiatives, programs, training and education of young people in particular cities and countries.
4. Promotion of the Erasmus+, its initiatives and non-formal education, by increasing knowledge about and learning best practices regarding their use.
5. Raising the competences of youth workers in the field of youth in complex project management, inspiring, motivating and activating youth while taking in account the multicultural environment and rapidly changing needs of EU societies.
